NEW YORK, Oct. 30 /PRNewswire/ -- "We're proud of the fact, that in such a short time, we have become noticed by the popular watch retailer ranking engines. We're also very happy to have made the top 50 in all of them. By knowing what our customers prefer, we constantly add functionalities to our site to simplify the buying process, while enhancing the buyer experience," says Steve Yakubi of IcedTime.com.

With the growth of its watch and jewelry inventory, IcedTime.com (www.icedtime.com), has become a premier place to find the exact bling bling watch or jewelry, that a customer is looking for. With practically every hip hop watch style available, and savings of over 50-70% off retail prices. IcedTime.com is leading the way in value and quality.

As reported by Direct, the diamond and jewelry sector have shown one of the most promising growth indicators in the past five years, as more and more customers choose online stores for savings on their jewelry purchases. IcedTime.com invites these customers to return to its site often via special deals, coupons and watch giveaways, building a large viewer base for its products.

IcedTime.com's placement in the top 50 is not only a sign of current success but of a goal to become the largest and most active bling bling watch site on the net.

About IcedTime.com

IcedTime.com was established in 2005 with the intent on accelerating the availability of often exclusive and limited production diamond watches and jewelry to the consumer market.

By setting up special contacts with the manufacturers, newly released watch pieces are quickly exposed to the market, gauging consumer preference, and fashion -- thereby creating a stable niche and market share in an ever changing and evolving world of fashion.
